

Jordan is an Associate with a broad range of experience in land use planning, development approvals and feasibility analysis. He has experience on a variety of residential, commercial, institutional and industrial projects for public and private sector clients, including official plan and zoning by-law amendments, site plan approval, draft plans of subdivision, and minor variances for projects ranging from mixed-use projects in Downtown Toronto to large-scale communities across the GTA and southwestern Ontario.

Jordan has appeared before municipal councils and committees of adjustment to represent clients on various development proposals. He is responsible for ongoing project management, including: liaising with clients, consulting team members, and City / Agency staff to achieve project deadlines; completing detailed analysis of planning policy and legislation; identifying opportunities and constraints to development; drafting of land use planning rationales and urban design briefs; as well as preparing materials for Ontario Municipal Board hearings.

Jordan is a Full Member of the Canadian Institute of Planners and the Ontario Professional Planners' Institute and is a Panelist on the City of London's Urban Design Review Panel.
