

Robert Glover is a professional Architect, Registered Professional Planner and an Urban Designer with 35 years of professional experience. He is Adjunct Associate Professor at the University of Toronto Faculty of Architecture, Landscape Architecture and Design and teaches in the Master of Urban Design program, and was a member of the Toronto Preservation Board (2002-2009). Mr. Glover was formerly the Director of Urban Design for the amalgamated City of Toronto (August 1998-April 2001).

ROBERT GLOVER
 MCIP, RPP, FRAIC, OAA
PARTNER

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Partner Bousfields Inc.	2004 - present
Senior Urban Design and Planning Associate IBI GROUP, Toronto	2001- 2003
Director, Urban Design City Planning Division of City of Toronto Urban Planning and Development Services	1998 - 2001
Consultant to the Sustainable Santiago Chile Project (CIDA, ICLEI)	1992-1998
Manager, Urban Design (Policy and Built Form) City of Toronto Planning and Development Department	1993 - 1998
Senior Urban Designer City of Toronto Planning and Development Department: Architecture and Urban Design Division	1992 - 1993
Urban Design Co-ordinator Ataratiri Development Project City of Toronto Housing Department	1988 - 1992
Planner, City of Toronto Planning and Development Department: East Section Waterfront and Railway Lands Section West-Central Section	1980 - 1988 (1986 - 1988) (1981 - 1986) (1980 - 1981)

EDUCATION, PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS & MEMBERSHIPS

- B. Arch. (Medalist)
University of Toronto (1975)
- MBA University of Toronto (2000)
- Royal Canadian Institute of Architects, Fellow (2013)
- Ontario Association of Architects
- Toronto Society of Architects
- Canadian Institute of Planners
- Ontario Professional Planners Institute
- Lambda Alpha International

RELEVANT PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Community Design Work

- Bond Head Settlement area in Bradford West Gwillimbury for Geranium (2005);
- Masterplan for the Humber Valley Resort community near Deer Lake in Newfoundland (2007);
- Masterplan for the Batawa area (2008);
- Bayside Urban Design Guidelines for Hines and WaterFront Toronto, City of Toronto, (2011-2012)

Heritage Studies

- University of Toronto Heritage Study with FGMD Architects - a (2012) heritage study of the Downtown building and campus including a heritage planning strategy for working with the City of Toronto, University of Toronto
- St. Lawrence Neighbourhood Heritage Conservation District Study with FGMD Architects (2014-15) - a study of the historic St. Lawrence Area including Guidelines and policy recommendation, City of Toronto

Mid-rise Development

- Yonge and Church Street condominium development (2004), Tridel, Richmond Hill;
- 1050 Queensway residential development (2004), Brandylane Developments, Etobicoke
- 1000 Mt Pleasant Road, rental apartment development (2006), Homestead, Toronto;
- 1705-1745 Avenue Road mixed-use development (2007), Riocan & Tribute Communities, Toronto
- Bronte Quad for Cityzen Developments (2007) , Oakville
- York Rowe 9-storey condominium and hotel (2003), Yorkville Avenue, Toronto.
- Alaska - An Innovative mid-rise condominium (2014-15) designed by architect Will Allsop at Yonge + Strathgowan, Toronto

High-rise Development

- Mirvish/Gehry Towers: A pair of landmark residential towers with a frontage of arts and institutional uses signifying, on both the skyline and at grade, the centre of the city's arts district (2012)
- 263 Adelaide Street West: High-rise residential infill development designed by Stephen Teeple Architects, including heritage warehouse preservation, within the King Spadina urban redevelopment area (2011): Neilas
- Distillery District Rackhouse: Architecturally innovative hotel and residential high-rise tower and heritage preservation of existing structure designed by Saucier + Perrotte and ERA within the heritage Distillery District of Toronto (2011): Cityscape and Dundee
- Sherbourne/ St Jamestown: Innovative proposal to architecturally and urbanistically rehabilitate the Sherbourne Street frontage of an existing 1960's high-rise complex in the central core, including new grade-related housing, improved streetscape and retail frontages, and the addition of a tower infill element with architecture designed by Page and Steele (2008– 2011): Medallion
- 33-storey Market Wharf development for Context Developments in the St. Lawrence area of Toronto (2008)
- Port Dalhousie Revitalization: Urban design peer review study and OMB testimony in favour of a comprehensive redesign of a historic downtown block in Part Dalhousie, including the introduction of a 17-storey tower, low and mid-rise street-related buildings and open space including heritage preservation, designed by Kirkland Partnership, (2008)
- "James Cooper Mansion" 582 Sherbourne Street: Contemporary residential infill tower adjacent a subway station, apartment neighbourhood and low-rise neighbourhood and incorporating heritage mansion, designed by Roy Varacelli with Wallman Architects (2006- 2008): Tridel
- "Four Seasons" Hotel: Architecturally distinguished modernist towers designed by Architects Alliance including a new public urban square in midtown Toronto (2005): Menkes
- Distillery District (Phase 2): Contemporary high-rise residential (two towers) and low-rise commercial infill designed by Architects Alliance within a nationally significant heritage precinct in the waterfront area of Toronto (2005-2008); Cityscape and Dundee
- "Tip Top" Phase 2: Modernist residential tower (24-storeys) designed by Architects Alliance architecturally integrated with the adjacent renovated heritage warehouse building (Tip Top) on Toronto's west waterfront (2005): Monarch

Institutional Development

- Centre for Engineering, St. George Street, University of Toronto (2014)
- Student Learning Centre, Yonge Street, Toronto, Ryerson (2013)
- Knightstone Student Residences, College Street, Knightstone & University of Toronto (2012-14)